H. P. Bergen

Democratic Candidate for Committeeman of the 31st Ward

H. P. Bergen, married, lives at 5736 S. Marshfield Ave. Born in Chicago; has lived in this district all his life well known throughout Chicago and is a staunch democrat. He represented the 31st ward in the city council for three terms. He is engaged in the insurance business in all its branches. If the democrats of the 31st ward want a committeeman who will represent the rank and file of the party and not the boss, Bergen is the man to vote for.

Sherry Goes Across

J. E. Sherry, the haberdasher, is now nicely located in his new store, 1552 W. 63rd St., in the store room formerly occupied by the Schorppe Piano Co. You'll find him near the corner from now on.

Wm. Kelly, our local butcher and packer, and one of the strongest boosters of our Business Men's Association, was present at yesterday's meeting and voiced a strong sentiment in favor of the association in the way it has progressed in such a short time. Mr. Kelly is a live one for the community and although not always present you can always count on "Bill" when it comes to improving or doing good for our home community.

A Severe Operation

Thos. Devens, 1512 W. 63rd St., who was so severely wounded in France, has recently had to have his left leg amputated at the hip. The operation took place two weeks ago at Ft. Sheridan Hospital, where Tom has been making his headquarters since the war. Tom recently had a severe hemorrhage from his last operation and a fellow patient gave up two quarts of blood through a transfusion. From latest reports Mr. Devens is resting as well as could be expected from one in his critical position.

ENGLEWOOD THEATRE

Ladies' Bargain Week Day Matinee, Seats 18c

Box office statements all over the circuit show that Pat White and his "All New Gaiety Girls" are proving one of the most popular attractions on the wheel. This superior company will be seen at the Englewood Theatre starting Sunday, March 18th, in a two-act vehicle which is called "Casey's Nightmare" and which is a monopoly on laughter. Pat White is at his best this year and is surrounded by the usual Pat White chorus of surpassing beauty and such talent as is possessed by Lillian Coe, Marty Fudig, Edna Howland, Elva Grieves, Jack Kammoner, Coe & Nelson and Bessie Baker. The performance is one that swings along with a rapid pace, White's comedy ringing out conspicuously, unusual dances by pretty girls being introduced frequently and there being an incessant panorama of scenic and costume magnificence. The music is tuneful and the program offers all that other burlesque shows offer, presents it all in a better way than most shows do, and then throws in a whole lot of additional attractions for good measure.

HON. LEONARD C. REID

Speaks At Business Men's Meeting

The third meeting of the Business Men's Association was held yesterday at the regular meeting place, 6319 Ashland Ave., with an attendance of about forty Real Good Live Boosters. The President, Mr. Frank McGarr, Jr., opened the meeting promptly at 12:30, just after lunch and the regular routine of business was carried on. Important reports were listened to—committees assigned to their several branches of work for the future, and suggestions for the good of the order were listened to and accepted. These meetings are growing more popular each time and the crowd seem to enjoy their hour of recreation. Many points of interest were taken up and acted on as to the future business. Mr. John S. Reiner was called upon for a short talk—which he responded to nicely and gave the Association a good boost and you can depend on John for he certainly likes to see his own neighborhood thrive.

Hon. Leonard Reid was then introduced and gave a most interesting talk on Cooperation of a Business Men's Association and his many points of view in this line were highly appreciated by every man present and his advise to us we consider most valuable, for which the Association tendered him a rising vote of thanks.

Northwest Englewood News

The West Englewood Cooperative Association will hold a special meeting, at a place to be announced later on Friday evening, April 2nd, for the purpose of effecting the permanent organization, to elect officers, board of directors and an educational committee. They will also adopt the Rules and By-Laws and make preparations to open up a store as soon as possible. It is urgently requested that all subscribers pay for all stocks subscribed for, before the above mentioned date, as only paid-up subscribers will be permitted to vote at this meeting. It is also urgently requested that all members attend this meeting, as the success of the store will depend largely upon the ability and the attention given the project by these first officers and directors.

Old Timer Departs

During the week there was buried from Honore Manor one who was truly one of the old settlers in this part of our town. Martin Roche, until his removal to his late residence, 5655 Honore St., has lived for many, many years in this section of the city, during which time he won innumerable friends, and was the sort that never lost a friend through ill-feeling or malice, as was evidenced by the large attendance at his funeral. He is mourned by his devoted wife, his ten children, each and every one of which honored and respected him, and by a host of friends and relatives. Our sincerest sympathy is extended to his bereaved.

Clarence Wadsworth Hughes has got a one-way automobile. What do you mean, a one-way automobile? We mean that it will turn only certain corners. He took the bus out last Sunday and was obliged to drive four blocks out of his way before the old stubborn thing would turn back for him. Clarence, why don't you buy yourself one of those old fashioned horse-whips and make the blamed thing turn?

To Mr. Michael O'Connell, our ward superintendent: Honore Manor is shamefully dirty. A team and a couple of white wings could do wonders to that accumulation of dirt and filth along the street drains.

Harry Hines says he is going to get some chickens. We wonder if he means poultry?

Did you see Sergeant Weber in his new derby hat and his swell new suit? Nifty, isn't he?

We rolled our lawn last Monday and found it to be just the right consistency for rolling. Oil up your rollers now and let's keep Honore Manor the garden spot of West Englewood.

Send two cents in postage to Peter Kramer, 5620 S. Honore St., and receive free a Corona Garden Guide. It tells you all about how to start a garden, how to plan and everything an amateur wants to know. Send now and be prepared to get busy as soon as the weather permits.

General contractor. Carpenter work a specialty. We remodel houses, build flats in attics, repair porches. We also build new bungalows, two flats and four flats. Long time in business.

WANT TO INCREASE YOUR WEALTH? ASK JORDAN & CO.

EVERYBODY wants to increase their wealth. There are two ways of doing that. One is get-rich-quick-maybe and the other is become-wealthy-gradually. It will make a solid, substantial citizen out of you to stand up for your rights upon your own ground. We have a good plan to increase your wealth—a 4-flat building for $13,700, $5,000 down and the rents pay for the balance. Or a 4-flat building at $14,500, $2,000 down. Either will pay for itself in a few years. This is a good way to increase your wealth without any risk. Come in and talk it over.

Experts Needed to Examine Scouts in Many Subjects

For ten days, starting March 22nd, the Scouts of the Southwest District and their leaders are in a campaign to recruit men to be Scoutmasters, Assistant Scoutmasters, Troop Committemen and Examiners.

There are scores of boys clamoring to become scouts but have no leaders. The best leadership is none too good for the boys of the district.

A scouting entertainment will be given for the people of Chicago Lawn on Friday evening, March 26th, at the Eberhardt school, 2100 W. 65th St., at 8 o'clock. One of the troops of the district will provide the scouting demonstrations and majority of the program. Southwest District Fife and Drum Corps will furnish music. Mr. H. E. Rompell, of Waukegan, Ill., will give an address on scouting. This evening entertainment is provided by the District Headquarters to stimulate interest in scouting among the parents and boys of the Lawn.

The monthly hike for the Southwest District scouts will take place on Saturday from the District Headquarters at 8 a. m., when the boys will hike to Summit. On their way they will be entertained at the Santa Fe scrap yards and receive information regarding work at the yards.

Boost Chicago by Keeping the City Clean

Have you ever visited a community where the streets are well kept and all the papers are regularly picked up and burned? Property in a community of that kind always is attractive and people of culture generally live in such a community. Let each of us try to make our particular community a model. This is clean up week. Tell your boys and girls to pick up the papers from the streets and when they become men and women they will be better citizens. Help make our city clean and thereby boost Chicago.

Prominent South Side Coal Merchant Retires

Mr. John DeKoker, Sr., president of the well known DeKoker & Sons Coal Co., has purchased a village farm in Glen Oak, Ill., and will occupy it after March 25th.

Mr. DeKoker came to West Englewood some twelve or fifteen years ago with his wife and eight small children. He leased all the land between 59th St. on the south and 55th St. on the north and from Robey St. west to the Pan Handle R. R., and with the aid of his wife and children managed to make both ends meet and lay a little away for a rainy day, by farming this ground.

One of the big real estate companies purchased this land from the owner and the only thing left for Mr. DeKoker to do was to move to a different part of the state if he wished to continue his farming. By a lot of persuasion he was induced to purchase six lots of his former farm, and thanks to his foresight he chose railroad frontage, which he knew would be suitable for industrial purposes.

He immediately started in the retail coal business, but soon found he could not depend on outside yards to furnish the kind of coal his trade required, so he put in a sidetrack and scales and bought carload lots and obtained better coal. The business grew rapidly and the DeKoker & Sons Coal Co. now own and operate two large yards—Yard No. 1, the original, 59th and Robey Sts., on Pan Handle R. R., and Yard No. 2, 55th Ct. and Archer Ave., on Indiana Harbor & Belt R. R.

We give Mr. DeKoker due credit for the success his company has attained and wish him much luck with his cows and chickens. Mr. DeKoker's six sons are well able to take up the work where their Dad leaves off and assure everyone that the firm's efforts to serve the public will not lessen, but will increase day by day.

Trade at Home

Rev. C. C. Cox advocated this in his sermon last Sunday night at Drexel Park church. Rev. Cox said:

"The menace of any community is a type of a people who abuse flats, destroy the woodwork of the same; who take no interest in the churches and schools, and go blocks to save two or three cents on an article. If a neighborhood is fit to live in, it's fit to spend one's money in."

Geo. Bly is negotiating with Hans Wienhold, "The Gold Fish Man," to stock his lake at Newaygo, Mich., this summer. Note George's ad in the Friday specials. Did you ever go gold fishing?
